Land Acknowledgement Statement

We acknowledge the lands and waters now known as Maryland are the home of its first peoples: the Accohannock Indian Tribe, Assateague People's Tribe, Cedarville Band of Piscataway Indians, Choptico Band of Indians, Lenape Tribe, Nanticoke Tribe, Nause-Waiwash Band of Indians, Piscataway Conoy Tribe, Piscataway Indian Nation, Pocomoke Indian Nation, Susquehannock Indians, Youghiogheny River Band of Shawnee, and tribes in the Chesapeake watershed who have seemingly vanished since the coming of colonialism. We acknowledge that this land is now home to other tribal peoples living here in diaspora. We acknowledge the forced removal of many from the lands and waterways that nurtured them as kin. We acknowledge the degradation that continues to be wrought on the land and waters in pursuit of resources. We acknowledge the right of the land and waterways to heal so that they can continue to provide food and medicine for all. We acknowledge that it is our collective obligation to pursue policies and practices that respect the land and waters so that our reciprocal relationship with them can be fully restored.

Subcommittee Focus

Infrastructure & Resource Gaps

- Artists have limited access to affordable housing and reasonably priced studio, rehearsal, and exhibition venue rentals, particularly outside major cities like Baltimore. There is a desire for subsidized spaces, shared resource hubs, and facilities tailored for artists.
  - The workgroup will research models of subsidized housing, shared resource hubs, and arts facilities, drawing insights from successful partnership models in other states and regions to develop solutions that address the physical infrastructure and resource needs of Maryland artists.
