Land Acknowledgement Statement

We acknowledge the lands and waters now known as Maryland are the home of its first peoples: the Accohannock Indian Tribe, Assateague People's Tribe, Cedarville Band of Piscataway Indians, Choptico Band of Indians, Lenape Tribe, Nanticoke Tribe, Nause-Waiwash Band of Indians, Piscataway Conoy Tribe, Piscataway Indian Nation, Pocomoke Indian Nation, Susquehannock Indians, Youghiogheny River Band of Shawnee, and tribes in the Chesapeake watershed who have seemingly vanished since the coming of colonialism. We acknowledge that this land is now home to other tribal peoples living here in diaspora. We acknowledge the forced removal of many from the lands and waterways that nurtured them as kin. We acknowledge the degradation that continues to be wrought on the land and waters in pursuit of resources. We acknowledge the right of the land and waterways to heal so that they can continue to provide food and medicine for all. We acknowledge that it is our collective obligation to pursue policies and practices that respect the land and waters so that our reciprocal relationship with them can be fully restored.

Equity and Justice Statement

The arts celebrate our state's diversity, connect our shared humanity, and transform individuals and communities. The Maryland State Arts Council (MSAC) is committed to advancing and modeling equity, diversity, accessibility, and inclusion in all aspects of our organizations and across communities of our state.

MSAC and its grantees are committed to embracing equity and non-discrimination regardless of race, religious creed, color, age, gender expression, sexual orientation, disability, class, language, and/or ability.

Subcommittee Focus

Infrastructure & Resource Gaps

- Artists have limited access to affordable housing and reasonably priced studio, rehearsal, and exhibition venue rentals, particularly outside major cities like Baltimore. There is a desire for subsidized spaces, shared resource hubs, and facilities tailored for artists.
 - The workgroup will research models of subsidized housing, shared resource hubs, and arts facilities, drawing insights from successful partnership models in other states and regions to develop solutions that address the physical infrastructure and resource needs of Maryland artists.

Next Steps - Research Compilation

- Independent research
 - Add to the document compiling research for discussion at subcommittee meeting 2
 - Research Spreadsheet
- Review others' research ahead of meeting 2

Next Steps - Meeting 2 Overview and Approach

- Subcommittee Meeting 2 Overview
 - Review independent research
 - Goal - Develop recommendations for what should be included in the final report (major points, case studies/examples, recommendations)
- Approach - Discuss preliminary thoughts
 - approach - resources, ideas of where to find potential content
 - coordination - self organizing research
 - group agreements
- Note taking

Next Meeting

- Next subcommittee meeting on Tuesday, April 22, 1-2pm

To do:

- Add research into the spreadsheet
- Take some time to review the subcommittee tab before the next meeting, add comments as warranted
