Arts in Education Revision Process

In the fall of 2019 and winter 2020, The Maryland State Arts Council convened over 60 public constituents to serve as editors to re-envision the Arts in Education Program.

Phase 1: Equitable Funding in Arts in Education
Phase 2: Teaching Artist Roster Policies
Phase 3: Arts in Education Grant Application
Phase 4: MSAC Alignment with Internal Procedures
Arts in Education Grant

- People experiencing Homelessness
- English Language Learners
- Educators
- Other Population/Community (please explain)
Equitable Funding Formula

Arts in Education Grant funding for youth audiences (aged 21 and under) will be determined for each county based on the following formula:

20% of the council approved budget base, distributed evenly across 24 counties.
+ 80% of remaining budget by county’s percentage of students receiving Free and Reduced Meals
+ 20% of remaining budget by student population percentage, comparative to the state
Applicants may request a waiver from the dollar for dollar match by submitting a Match Waiver Request Form with their application’s budget. In-Kind contributions (up to 25% of the total engagement cost) will be considered only if a request form was submitted.

Match waivers, including the entirety of the Arts in Education Grant Application, will be reviewed by the Arts in Education Grants Panel based on our scoring rubrics.
County Arts Development AiE Funds

County arts agencies may regrant funds from their MSAC County Arts Development (CAD) grant for AiE programs in their counties. CAD AiE Grants are separate and distinct from the MSAC AiE Grant.

Arts in Education Grant funds may be used in conjunction with AiE funds from county arts agencies (CAD/AiE). Applicants should note any county arts agency contribution in their submitted budget. Total MSAC funds may not exceed \( \frac{3}{4} \) (75%) of the total cost of educational engagements.
County Arts Development AiE Funds

Total MSAC funds may not exceed $\frac{3}{4}$ of the total cost of educational engagements.

MSAC CAD AiE Funding = $\frac{1}{4}$ (up to $1,250$)
MSAC AiE Grant Funding = $\frac{1}{2}$ (up to $2,500$)
Applicant Funds = $\frac{1}{4}$ (up to $1,250$)
Total Cost of Educational Engagements (up to $5,000$)
Arts in Education Grant: Before You Apply

- READ THE GUIDELINES!
- Confirm Your Site Coordinator and Your Primary Site
  a. A Site Coordinator must be an individual employed by the site organization.
- Confirm the Teaching Artist’s Availability, Budget, and Educational engagements
- Make a Smart Simple account and request to be invited to the Teaching Artist’s application
  a. The Teaching Artist will begin the application and instruct MSAC Staff to invite site coordinator’s to collaboratively edit and submit.
Arts in Education Grant: Before You Apply

  a. The applicant may identify multiple educational engagements with their selected Teaching Artist.
- Up to two grant requests per applicant may be awarded in any fiscal year (July 1 - June 30).
  a. If an applicant wishes to receive funding for different Teaching Artists in one fiscal year, they must submit a separate application.
Arts in Education Grant: Before You Apply

- If an applicant wants to request funds for a Field Trip and Professional Development, they must identify a related Educational Engagement Type in their application.
- Multiple sites (up to four) may apply to collaborate with one Teaching Artist in one application, but one Site Coordinator and a primary site must be identified in the application.
Arts in Education Grant: Application
Review Criteria

Aligned Goals and Success Measures

● What are the expected goals for the educational engagement(s)?
● How do you define success?
● How will you know you were successful in meeting your goals?
● How will your goals support your selected population/community's needs?

250 words max for each question.

Specific, clearly stated goals of proposed activities are closely aligned with stated success definition and measures. Stated goals highly support the selected population/community's needs.
Arts in Education Grant: Application Review Criteria

Timeline

- What is the timeline of activities? Consider activities from planning the experience (e.g. initial meeting via phone, virtual conference, a site visit) to any follow up activities (e.g. reflection meetings)? Include dates even if they are tentative or estimates. Explain the pacing for your proposed schedule. 500 words max.

Clear, specific, and realistic timeline demonstrating expenditure of funds, individual and collaborative planning, and final implementation.
Arts in Education Grant: Match Waiver Criteria (optional*)

Financial Circumstance

● Describe the financial circumstances on why you are requesting a match waiver.
● If you do not receive the waiver, how would you meet the match?

250 words max.

The statement of need identifies a clear and substantial financial circumstance of the community/population being served. The statement of need includes clear, specific evidence that supports the Match Waiver amount requested in the application.
Budget

- How will the MSAC grant funding be used?

Budget template will be provided.

Financial information is clearly tied to the proposed educational engagements and indicates realistic expenses for its implementation.

Arts in Education Grant: Review Process

- Reviews will be completed monthly by an Arts in Education Grant Panel. Applications may be submitted on a rolling basis.
- Arts in Education Grant applications submitted by the fifth day of the month will be reviewed by the panel within the same month.
  Applications received after the fifth day of the month will be reviewed by the panel in the following month.
- After the monthly panel review, applicants and their selected Teaching Artist will be notified of grant status by the end of the month in which it was reviewed.
Arts in Education Grant: Review Process

- If an applicant has not been selected to receive a grant after a monthly review, they may request a feedback appointment with the AiE Program Director and can apply again at any time.
- The grant will be considered declined if, after one month and 3 notifications, the grantee (the teaching artist) does not accept the award for funding.
- First monthly review: Submissions between May 15 - July 5.
- First notifications sent July 31.
Teaching Artist Roster

*MSAC Teaching Artist Carien Quiroga works with adult learners during Maryland Centers for Creative Classrooms
Teaching Artist Roster: Benefits

- Funding opportunities for sites to cost share Teaching Artist Fees.
  - MSAC pays the total cost of the Arts in Education Grant (up to $5,000) directly to the Teaching Artist. The site organization will pay their match directly to MSAC. With this model Teaching Artists are the sole recipients of grant monies.

- Connections to a statewide network of organizations and nonprofits that lead professional development for Teaching Artists.

- Individualized feedback and evaluation sessions that help Teaching Artists’ strengthen their programming.

- Heightened visibility through print and online marketing, including MSAC’s Artist Directory.

- Opportunities to provide reflections to MSAC staff.
