

Organization or Artist Name	County	Discipline	Statement
Lauren Adams	Baltimore City	Media/Visual Arts	Rights and Wrongs: Challenging the 19th Amendment Centennial Celebrations is an exhibition of local Baltimore artists whose works address historical and contemporary issues of citizenship, civil rights, and democracy, coinciding with the 2020 elections.
Live Garra Theatre	Montgomery	Theatre	Funding will help support the general operating production costs of the original piece "NEPANTLA PLACE". The play will run from May 13 – 31, 2020.
Madeline Becker	Baltimore City	Media/Visual Arts	This funding will provide studio space to work on the project and will contribute to helping pay a living wage for film editor ReAnn Orr.
Bas Melech Performing Arts Center	Baltimore County	Dance	Funding will support a public end-of-the-year performance, where children of all backgrounds can share their talents with the general public in order to increase their self-esteem while inspiring others about the importance of movement arts.
Resurrection Catholic Church (Living Arts Concert Series)	Montgomery	Music	Funding will help with hosting a space to talented artists, mostly from Maryland, so their neighboring community can experience live music at monthly concerts that are affordable, inspiring, engaging and extremely varied.
Javier Farias	Montgomery	Music	Funding will assist the cost of composition and performance fees of Never Step Back : A new piece for guitar, narration, and vocals detailing the hardship and triumph of the immigrant experience.
Richard Kolm	Baltimore City	Music	Funds will support Baltimore Mixtape, a two day, multi-genre music festival, arts celebration, and love letter to Baltimore City.
Pamela Woolford	Howard	Multi-Discipline	The grant will fund the multi-sensory exhibition portion of Pamela Woolford's two-pronged project Disrupt/ed (a mem-noir).